416 Fire

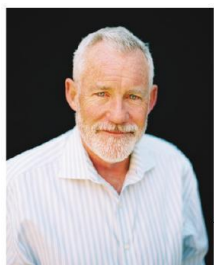

Two Colorado Firms Join Forces to Seek Justice for the Victims of the “416 Fire”

Please join BURG SIMPSON ELDREDGE HERSH & JARDINE, P.C., and DUTHIE SAVASTANO BRUNGARD, PLLC., for an upcoming community discussion, and find out how these two highly-respected law firms, known for their consumer advocacy, are seeking to provide their decades of experience to assist those who have been affected by the “416 Fire.”

The nationally recognized Colorado-based law firm of Burg Simpson Eldredge Hersh & Jardine, P.C., and Duthie Savastano Brungard, PLLC, have significant experience litigating complex cases in Colorado courts and are intricately aware of the nuances of Colorado law. Together, they look forward to representing and providing a local voice to those people and businesses affected by the devastating “416 Fire.”

The meeting is tentatively scheduled for both September 17, and September 18 beginning at 7:30 p.m. at the Durango Arts Center (DAC).
